All this time together has left me cold and weathered/ I'll take what's mine from you All your expectations caved when I erased them,
A crutch to your empty heart, an excuse,
You just played a part
And your lies caught up to you,
Yeah they chased you to the truth
Just deny, what you've said and done, you're a cheat
And I hope you run

I'm not done quite yet now, I'm not done

I tried my best to take you down, you tried so hard to hang around
I guess shit happens all the time

Cry lie a boy cries wolf, I refuse to take a second look You made your bed a grave
Try to defend your vows, you're a crook and you don't know how I'll always get my way

I'm not done quite yet now, I'm not done

I tried my best to take you down, you tried so hard to
I guess shit happens all the time
I tried my best to take you down, you tried so hard to
I guess shit happens all the time
