Keep building up my hope, a circumstance that broke.
An unknown reason that I'd feel decent here. When all my charm has worn thin. I've got a start that won't begin. And if I make it, I hope I make it soon.

I know I'm gonna be Reeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeaaaaady. I know I'm gonna be ready.

Chorus

Why you treat me this way? How can you think that it's okay? And I keep singing my heart out.
Why you treat me this way? How can you think that it's okay? And I keep singing my heart out.

I'll tear out every page, I'll give into my rage
and if you come back I'll swear you off for good.
My chances looking slim, when happiness looks grim. I like this dark place, the liquor cheap and good.

I know I'm gonna be Reeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeaaaaady. I know I'm gonna be ready.

Chorus

What if I gave you..all of my love? Would you take it..and just use it up? What if I gave you all of my love?
Would you take it? Would it be enough?

And I'll keep singing my heart out.

Chorus
