I'm so tired
And I keep on hearing
The same old things from you
Just be quiet
Save your stories
For that someone new

Every time I try
All I hear is
That you haven't changed
Take a break now
Quit explaining
I'm about to make a move

There you go
You go again
What's the point in being friends?
Enough is enough
I'm a big girl
If you need to go just tell me now

When did you check out?
When did you sign off?
I didn't get the notice
How could you do this?
Wish I knew
Thought I knew you better
But whatever

When did you check out?
When did you sign off?
I didn't get the notice
How could you do this?
Wish I knew
Thought I knew you better
But whatever

I gave you everything
A girl could give you
It took me by surprise
I let time slip right

Through my fingers
Letting you just tell me lies

We should've ended it a
Whole lot sooner
But sometimes we can't see
A broken heart is
Hanging from the ceiling
Right between you and me

So, there you go
You go again
What's the point in being friends?
Enough is enough
I'm a big girl
If you need to go just tell me now

When did you check out?
When did you sign off?
I didn't get the notice
How could you do this?
Wish I knew
Thought I knew you better
But whatever

When did you check out?
When did you sign off?
I didn't get the notice
How could you do this?
Wish I knew
Thought I knew you better
But whatever
