F*ck this life
When you can dance all night
Forget this light
And dance, Avion, dance

Stuck is the knife in your back
You got your forces under attack
The sky goes from blue to black
So put on the track and dance, dance, dance

Dance, Avion, dance
You're in a world where no one dances too
You're just a meaning, a possession
You're the world's new obsession
So dance, Avion dance
You're in a world where no one dances too
You're just a meaning, a possession
You're the world's new obsession
And they can't take their eyes off you

Want sleep, you can sleep when you're dead
Rust, rust when the rain ends
They say curiosity killed mankind
X marks the spot, whatever you will find
Vision of beauty will turn you blind
Everyone's talking about your beautiful mind

Dance, Avion, dance
You're in a world where no one dances too
You're just a meaning, a possession
You're the world's new obsession
So dance, Avion dance
You're in a world where no one dances too
You're just a meaning, a possession
You're the world's new obsession

You know that you could be the soldier we can be the war
This planet is your dance floor and dancing is the law
The population have arrived for your performance at the door

They're banging down the gates with their faces all forlorn

They're wanting you Avion to teach the world to dance We've lost ourselves to reason that there is no more romance
Complications overcome us and our patents have advanced
So put on the track and dance, dance, dance
