My clothes are on the inside out
I walk to the ceiling looking down
I turn to the left when I'm trying to turn right
Why do we have to love not fight?

Your words to me are like darts on the wall
They stick but sooner or later they'll fall
Why do you always have to go
And leave me here, all alone?

We ride this ship called Noah's Ark
We sail from dusk from day 'til dark
Above this vessel we've made our mark
While you and I ignite this spark

Your words to me are like darts on the wall
They stick but sooner or later they'll fall
Why do you always have to leave
And suffocate this air I breathe?
