Become one of the sheep
And now the wheels are turning
Oh we need some relief
The hungry wolves are coming

And we're threatened to say the least
And I'll be here when they come down
Oh mother, I can't sleep
To save your life

Takes one to fight the war
Takes many to adjust to fear
So will someone carry me
'Cause I'm here

Stunned! Stunned!
By the glare of the headlights
The fire in your eyes
And I'm stunned! Just stunned!
By head over heels
By how our love never dies

Damn this bastard heat
These calloused streets are burning
I could see those golden streaks
And the sun streams of the morning

See I'm deafened by the scream
Oh shed one tear to cool me down
Oh brother I'm in too deep
To save your life

Takes one to fight the war
Takes many to adjust to fear
So will someone carry me
'Cause I'm here

Stunned! Stunned!
By the glare of the headlights
The fire in your eyes
And I'm stunned! Just stunned!

By head over heels
By how our love never dies
And I'm stunned! Stunned!
By the glare of the headlights
The fire in your eyes
And I'm stunned! Just stunned!
By head over heels
By how our love never dies

Wait for the outburst of a silent soul
So the cool air makes me burn
What have we become, a pair of you and I
An emotional rock
Or a rock of emotion
You've been here all along
In your fire

Stunned! Stunned!
By the glare of the headlights
The fire in your eyes
And I'm stunned! Just stunned!
By head over heels
By how our love never dies
And I'm stunned! stunned!
By the glare of the headlights
The fire in your eyes
And I'm stunned! Just stunned!
By head over heels
By how our love never dies
