Everything that you say
Everything that you do
Nothing will change
You feel my rage
Give in to me, you run through me

Dying, you presence feels right
That's a part of the signs
Need you here, once you're near
Release my fears
Now

Every word that you say
Every time that you burn
All thoughts you feel
I know they're real
I can smell you, I can spell you

Thinking life will rearrange
Hope our hearts will never change
Encontre adentro en ti
Everything I lost in me
De ti no quiero separame
Viviras adentro de mi sangre
You are the one
