[Verse 1]

Cover me I'm going in Never lose I'm born to win
When its done I go again
Harder till they know its him
Cruising with a lady friend
Hair blowing in the wind Bout to get it in Like I got a title to defend came from the bottom up
Yeah I had a lot of luck
That's because I made it happen
Look at you, you're mad as fuck
I'm on the elevator
Homey you can take the ladder up
Shitting, pissing on these cowards
Bout to blow my bladder up
Get my motivation, grind and talent
Go head add em up
That'll equal out a winner
Patient but I had enough
Cooling on the sidelines
Waiting till its my time
Now's the perfect hour though so you can call it primetime
This is dedicated to those wishing I ain't made it
I been underrated
Overlooked and underestimated
I be going gone faded Till I'm feeling elevated for anyone who hated better yet I won't say it homey

[Chorus]

Cover Me I'm going
I said Cover Me I'm going

[Verse 2]

I been too busy
Trying to kill it in the city

Where the dudes are always hating
And the girls are so pretty
I'm from jerz
Home of naughty, lauryn, clef, reggie and whitney
I represent the garden state
Got Hudson county with me Right across from NY rappers wanna get fly
And start to hate I
I say live and let die
Shit a brutha 5'11"
Still I am doing what I do
You could be 6'2"
Still won't have a better view

Respect for a brother when he come through
They rep for a brother Well that's nothing new
So you could say that I'm the opposite of you
I'm trying to say that homey you're the opposite of true
And all you'll be is the opposite of me
Impossible there's not a probability That's just the way that all this shit has got to be
You will never be as hot as me

Now..

[Chorus]
