"Take Your Place"

This is the generation. The one that will lead us back to him. He lives within, So set him Free. This is the generation. The one that will rise and make a stand. He lives within, so Set him free. This is where the change begins. Now turn the tide! Turn the tide. Live the Story that has been written, making a name for the chosen one. The battle's already Been won. Soldiers in a forgotten war, rise up and take your place! Make a stand with Me! This is the generation. The one that will lead u back to him. He lives within, so set Him free. This is the generation. The one that will rise and make a stand. He lives within, So set him free. This is where the change begins. Now turn the tide! Turn the tie!
