"Here's To The Nights"

Hang up the phone. Let it fall to the floor. You've convince yourself you don't care anymore.
I can't recall those final words, when I swore this was over.

Here's to those nights. No, I can't remember. Those ones they last forever.
Every time I promised I could never... our last kiss lasts forever.

Suddenly my life is out of reach. "Out of sight, Out of mind", you always told me.
When you walked away, I didn't run after you. I recalled on my knees, slaved by the weakness.

Empty bottles are my empty dreams. All my mistakes are your dreams. Close my eyes in shame. Without you it's not the same. (I kissed off forever)
