Words fail to appear.
You are who you always said you were.
And turn a tear stained call me a stranger like you didn't know me.

Do you believe in ghosts?
'Cause ours walk these halls.
They hold hands and touch on the things I can't even recall.

What I wouldn't give to get back in your head again.
What I wouldn't say so you'd just look my way again.
You dare to say you never loved me.
I dare to believe you won't.
It's so hard to run when you're falling.
No chance of love, just abandon me.
I watched it end, straight from the start.
The truth and the chances weren't that far.

4am, I'm staring ceiling,
chasing shadows across the walls.
All your doubt I took and I held on for so long.

Now I'm sucking poison out of my empty wounds.
As if I still need a reason to miss you.

What I wouldn't give to get back in your head again.
What I wouldn't say so you'd just look my way again.
You dare to say you never loved me.
I dare to believe you won't.
It's so hard to run when you're falling.
No chance of love, just abandon me.
I watched it end, straight from the start.
The truth and the chances weren't that far.

Well, it came down to truth or dare. Each time you just stood there.
Now I can't choose if I was lonelier with or without you.
