Another cold night in the silence
I never thought you would be leaving
I only wanted to try and make you see

Is there a chance to tell me why
And where do you begin to try?
The battle is over, mistaken again

It falls through me
(Through me)
It falls through me
(Yeah yeah yeah, through me)
(It falls through me)

Now in the darkness of my cold room
This time, I live alone forever
I only wanted to make you understand

Too late, the gold has turned to rust
You wait, your love lies in the dust
I gave you my spirit, now this is the end

It falls through me
(Through me)
It falls through me
(It falls through me)
It falls through me
(It falls through me, yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah)
It falls through me
(Yeah yeah, let it fall through me)
(It falls through me)

It falls through me

This battle is over, mistaken again?
I gave you my spirit, now this is the end

It falls through me
(Through, through me)
It falls through me
It falls through me
(It falls through me)

(Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah)
It falls through me
(It falls through me, yeah yeah, yeah)

It falls through me
It falls through me

Is there a chance to tell me why

It falls through me
