Your the once in a lifetime,
your the one thats right.
Feels like forever is walking into my life.
One kiss in a moment,
one moment in time.
I feel the touch of an angel,
and my hearts paralyzed.
So what's a girl meant to do,
does she build her world around you.

One thing i know, i know,
is that enough is never enough.
Every time i have to leave you,
i know how much i need you.
Boy your touch is never too much,
and every time i let you go.
Thats when i know, i know,
enough is never enough,
with you its never too much,
enough is never enough, never enough.

There's a promise unbroken,
that i made to you.
These words i've spoken,
always gunna be true.
Your the once in a lifetime,
as i close my eyes.
I feel lost in emotion,
i'm almost paralyzed.
Tell me what's a girl meant to do,
i'm so in love with you.

One thing i know, i know,
is that enough is never enough.

Every time i have to leave you,
i know how much i need you.
Boy your touch is never too much,
and every time i let you go.
Thats when i know, i know,
enough is never enough,
with you its never too much,

enough is never enough, never enough.
Enough is never enough,
with you its never too much,
enough is never enough, never enough.

Theres nothing that can't compare to this feeling,
with you the hardest part is the leaving.
What am i gunna do,
i'm so in love with you.

Enough is never enough.
Every time i have to leave you,
i know how much i need you.
Boy your touch is never too much,
and every time i let you go.
Thats when i know, i know,
enough is never enough,
with you its never too much,
enough is never enough, never enough.
Enough is never enough,
with you its never too much,
enough is never enough, never enough.
