Now i cant help but stare at your shirt on the chair its been watching me cry for weeks and i can still see your face watching my heart break in the pictures of you and me

And i cant help listen to my heart missing your touch ever since you've been gone no
i try to block it out
but its going round and round your stuck in my head like a song

So i just sing a lullabye bye, baby bye bye but my heart is saying its not the end so i just sing a lullabye bye, baby dont cry cos i know im gonna see you again see you again(bye,bye,bye,bye)

Call me crazy but i know your gonna walk through that door soon as i turn around its like your voice in the air and you soud so sincere saying theres nothing to worry bout

gone no
i try to block it out

cos i know im gonna see you again
see you again(bye,bye,bye,bye)

Its written in the melodies that we were meant to be with me is where you belong

And as long as your away babe ill be here waiting just singing this song
singing this song

I know it wont be long
singing this song
i know you'll becoming home yeahhh

Sing a lullabye bye, baby bye bye but my heart is saying its not the end sing a lullabye bye, baby dont cry cos i know im gonna see you again
see you again(bye,bye,bye,bye)
