you always said i write the best songs about you the last one made you cry it's been a year of moving and believing this will work no holiday can take that back

you got me now
you got me all tied up in myself & you got this way, you decorate & i've got all night long hang this banner from the ceiling to the floor it's got all the right words that say i won't be living here no more and the snow comes down the Christmas lights are breaking everything is falling apart now your hands are shaking maybe we're just falling apart

you got me all tied up in myself
& you got this way, you decorate
& i've got all night long
