Hey girl how you living tonight
Can I get forgiven tonight?
Cuz the way that its looking like I'm sending tonight
Cuz I'm looking and I see a lot of women tonight

They probably tryna blow me off
Cuz I send em all my swag so they know I'm boss
You know a joker gotta ball
And said how'd you get it back
Cuz I never lost it

You know how jokers stay afloat
They like my music
They don't ever really play it though

Is it just cuz I'm a minor
And I'm tickin like a timer
And all my ladies finer than your women
And all my clothes designer
And I'm hotter than an iron
And the iron isn't tired
And I'm winning

And I'm bringing
Made a buck yeah I'm in it
Girl why you trippin
Take a minute
Oh Jeez, girl I'm kidding
Take you to my spot
I can show you how I'm living

Get up in my car but only if you with it
We be kissing in the back
Cuz my windows stay tinted
I just did it to em

Oh girl I'm not timid
We can hit the mall
My card don't got a limit
Even if it did little joker didn't hit it
Cuz I keep on going higher ever since i started spitting

Girl you sad? I get it
Girl you mad? What is it
Send it back? I'll fix it
But all he want is swag?
Well I'm glad that you admit it
Cuz these jokers tripping

This is my town
Tear on the spot when the joker aint around
Pat me on the head just be careful of the crown
And my dad said that you still lost till you found
And you keep em going down

Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
Don't do it girl don't do it
You're so beautiful but baby who knew it
Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
I admit it I get pissed when you tripping
We either break up or make up so forget it

Girl you walked up in the night club
Well you walked up in the right club
And some dudes tryna get some, damn
Well this bout to be a fight club cuz,

I've been look for a hottie with a body
Girl you had me, thinking
Girl I got you, drinking (yeah)
Lemonade stay pink and
We can
Sneak in
My room for the weekend
Tell that chef that you a vegan

Baby you aint ever leaving
Kiss you on the cheek when you sleeping
Beacon
Of light

Baby girl goodnight
I know that you out my sight
But that's only for the night
Why its always gotta feel wrong when its right
Its about to go down

And you know it
Girl I really like you so just throw it (down)
Girl while I'm off being a poet
You gone be at home tryna hold it (down)

When you get mad girl I know it (down)
That's when you take your phone and you throw it (down)

I'm looking at you now and you growing
And that looks up in my eyes and you know it
And I hold it
but its about to go down

Its about to go down
Its about to go down
Its about to go down
Its about to go down
Its about to go down
Its about to go down
Its about to go down down down down down

This is my town
Tear on the spot when the joker aint around
Pat me on the head just be careful of the crown
And my dad said that you still lost till you found
And you keep em going down

Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
Don't do it girl don't do it
You're so beautiful but baby who knew it
Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
I admit it I get pissed when you tripping
We either break up or make up so forget it

Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
Don't do it girl don't do it
You're so beautiful but baby who knew it
Sometimes life is hard don't let love get you down
(down down down)
I admit it I get pissed when you tripping
We either break up or make up so forget it'
Swag
