Look at me now,
I'm standing in the sun
Everything's changed,
I've found someone, the one
All that I've said, all that I've done
You're the right to all the wrong
We're at the start where we begin, so come on

You pull on my heartstrings,
giving my life wings
Warm up the frozen, living again
You pull on my heartstrings,
call on my feelings
Showing the world we're living again

Nanananana nanananana
You pull on my heartstrings, living again
Nanananana nanananana
You pull on my heartstrings, living again

I don't have a choice,
I'm shaken to the core
You cut through the noise and make me yearn for more
When I survive, when I believe in you

You pull on my heartstrings,
giving my life wings
Warm up the frozen, living again
You pull on my heartstrings,
call on my feelings
Showing the world we're living again

Nanananana nanananana
You pull on my heartstrings, living again
Nanananana nanananana

You pull on my heartstrings, living again

You can breathe, you can rest
Hear my heart through my chest
Through the dark, through the night
You're my light

You pull on my, you pull on my
You pull on my-ay-ay-ay

Heartstrings,
you pull on my heartstrings
You pull on my heartstrings, living again

You pull on my heartstrings,
giving my life wings
Warm up the frozen, living again
You pull on my heartstrings,
call on my feelings
Showing the world we're living again

Showing the world we're living again
Showing the world we're living again
