im such a cool girl,
im such a cool girl,

you may look at me and think that im conceited but im really not, i cant help it if im super sassy and im super hot, people think im stuck up when they meet me, i get that alot,
but i just cant sweat it, just cant let it knock me off my mind, if you get to know me i am super cool, if you get on my team ill be there for you, put you in my circle, anying for you,

if you look out for me ill look out for you,

you shouldnt judge me,
get to know me first,
and then you will see im such a cool girl, i know i cant se im in my own world, that doesnt change me im stil a cool girl, and next time that you see me, come speak to me,

cause imnot hollywood, even though im gettin paid but,
i could go back to my hood, never think that im better than anyone, so next time you see me dont judge me,
