Making up lies to justify your move
Explain it if you want to
Nobody knows better than you.
Stuck in your head
You're trapped by the things you said
Did come out right?
If you were less than what you believe
And you have everything
You need baby, just believe
Maybe your life ain't like poetry
Maybe not what you thought it would be
But it will be alright
It will be okay
You're here 'cause you're supposed to be
You're not missing anything
You have Everything

You need, baby
Just believe.
Just believe, yeah.
You're stuck in your book
Trapped by the love that you took
You really are amazing baby I wish that you could see
That all I want
Step away for sometime
Pretending to be perfect
Doesn't cut it all the time
And you have everything
You need, baby
Just believe
And you have everything
You need baby
Just believe.
Just believe, yeah.
