This girl is so, this girl is so
This girl is so confusing
Girl why you so, girl why you so
girl why you so confusing
First you love me then you hate me
Why you so confusing
First you pull me, now you push me
Why you so confusing

She saying one thang, but meaning another
First I was your boo, but now I'm like your brother Girl what's going on, hey tell me what's the deal
We used to mess around, now all you wanna do is chill I'ma fall back, and let you have your space cause before i was the kind to run around and chase it
You can be replaced so to the next space
So make up your mind girl you're running out of time Cause I can be with her and you and him could be Or I can be with you, be the way it's supposed to be Baby people wanna know what's going on with you and me
I don't know what to say, I been ...

This girl is so, this girl is so
This girl is so confusing
Girl why you so, girl why you so
girl why you so confusing
First you love me then you hate me
Why you so confusing
First you pull me, now you push me
Why you so confusing

Girl what is going on? Just listen to the song
If I get up I'm gone
Then you gonna say I'm wrong
You always in my phone, we supposed to get along
Why you wanna blow my high when I be in the zone
You always asking about this bitch or that bitch
Or some you know what's up with this shit and that shit
First you love me then you hate me, you an actress
Kick me out your door, now you naked on my mattress

You love me while we sexing, hate me while I' m texting You pointing out your house, now you're all in my direction
Pulling up ...you send a nigga packing
Now you hurry askin bout to be my baby daddy

This girl is so, this girl is so
This girl is so confusing
Girl why you so, girl why you so
girl why you so confusing
First you love me then you hate me
Why you so confusing
First you pull me, now you push me
Why you so confusing X 2
