[Chorus]

Is the whole world gunning for me, or is it just all in my mind?

If you want it, come and see me

I ain't got nothing but time

One day youâ€™re gonna set me free

But first you gotta let me shine

Niggas ain't high as I be

See, look momma Iâ€™m flyinâ€™

To Neverland, Neverland, Neverland

Iâ€™ll probably never land

Neverland, Neverland, noo, Iâ€™ll never never land

[Verse 1]

Check my fortune cookie, its that Cole World

Could that mean itâ€™s meant to be?

So much drive a nigga coulda been a chauffeur

This life is fucking with me mentally

Fake niggas try to act like they a friend to me

I treat you lames how I see you lames, enemies

My good girl say they wanna know the inner me

My bad girl sayinâ€™ fuck all that, enter me

Double shots, hennessy bring out bad tendencies

Try to cut something, need a volunteer, Tennessee

Anything to take my mind off

I logged on and made them muthafuckas sign off

I got the on my dick theyâ€™ll never climb off

I switch watches yet I never took time off (time off)

I donâ€™t know whats worse, fake friends or fake fans

Both kissing ass for the chance to shake hands and damn

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

Iâ€™m sorting through this, organised confusion to get my thoughts together

This shit is sounding like a movie you can watch forever

I gotta make it to the top, itâ€™s either now or never

These other niggas canâ€™t adapt because they not as clever

The shit they talk is more expensive but I doubt its better

She let that nigga make it rain but guess who got it wetter

Cold World, snow flurries in the hottest weather
And, so sick they can't fix this with medicine
We at yo door and she gotta let us in It's what you want, I whet your appetite
Cole hit the scene now I'm what everyone rapping like
Shame you feel you have to bite
Still ain't nobody snapping right Pedal to the metal as I'm speeding through the traffic lights
Bitch I gotta catch a flight, come on already Still fight like I'm the underdog, I'm on already Got a few niggas we bout to prove wrong, ya'll already already
[Chorus]
