(Intro)

Yea

Hey

Groovy

Yea

Yea

Hey

(Verse)

You could drop a red floor sign down for the tears

God and my court date, the 2 things I fear

Man, they tryna give a nigga years

IÂ'm tryna figure if I should even appear

Or should I escape town?

Catch a greyhound

Change my name right, catch a plane flight

Out the country, let the motherfuckers hunt me

Come catch me if you want me, you theyÂ'd lock me if I stayed

But where IÂ'mma run to?

I got a good girl, we got a son too

And all we went through, we ainÂ't see eye to eye

But what you told me way back?

You was a ride or die

So if they give me one or if they give me 2

Or if a nigga gotta sit down and do a few

Before I go baby, I gotta know what would you do

Would you find someone new or would you stay?

Like the hoes when they lay with me

Puppy eyes when I go, sayin stay with me

Oh girl you bad as hell, and yea I love to

But see I got a girl IÂ'm really making love to

Therefore IÂ'm feeling like more guilty when I rub you

ThatÂ's why I skip all of that kissing when I fuck you

Flush a condom down the toilet then I escape

I had you but you canÂ't have me

I never stay

Yea, thatÂ's the one

StayÂ...

Yea

StayÂ...

(Verse)

Hah, life in the hometown

Â'Fore I could take a step, IÂ'm getting grown now

And start to notice that I see the same hoes round

Guess they had to go round

My raps is profound

I got the flows but yet a nigga ainÂ't got no sound

Cop the beat machine, IÂ'm cooking up my own now

Got my mind on the city where it goes down

See if IÂ'mma get the wet IÂ'm going then I canÂ't stay

Although I love it here

IÂ'll be damned if is sit around another year

Dreaming dreams, hoping somehow that they just appear

The hardest part of leaving is to now my mother here

Oh but IÂ'm coming back, oh boy believe that

And show the little niggas, boy you can achieve that

Got the city on my shoulders, piggyback

Hello, my name is Cole and IÂ'm here to stay

Hey

StayÂ...

StayÂ...
