[Chorus]

Ayo, paper, green or cheddar, cheese or bread
The cream is better, cake niggas fiend to get a piece of this American dream
It seems it's sunken to where this money is all they in love with
Like paper, green or cheddar, cheese or bread
The cream is better, cake niggas fiend to get a piece of
this American dream
It seems it's sunken to where this money is all they in
love with

[J. Cole - Verse 1]

Yo, Tasha, a fox but, been round the block cause niggas jock her
The wannabe model she dating mobsters
Been involved with street kids to kingpins Got a thing for the bad boys
Thats how she meets him, see him is cat named black Real name Jack James, stacks change
Real big in the crack game
She's seen that Range and she's seen that chain
The bling made the dame wanna give up her last name
She was wit, but he was pimp like, just like Ike was Treated her like it was the Fight Club Hit her with rights, blood drippin' on white rug
By the end of the night, they would kiss and she was iced up
Long as he kept her iced up, she piped down Hit her off with a little pipe to mic bounce Down south where a nigga wouldn't return for days or weeks
She was too afraid to cheat
So you aint even gotta ask
As long as she got a Prada bag
Or an Armani exchange skirt showing a lot of ass She's good, living the life, she's ballin'
too bad she picked the wrong nigga to get involved with

See the nigga black had problems and enemies
And snake niggas is friends only pretend to be

And cats is out for his head, he caught in some shit
Just watch how Tasha gets tossed in the mix

[Chorus]

[J. Cole - Verse 2]

Now Black owed money and when it comes to this money, trust me
You can't tip toe with nobody cause niggas will do insane things to get they cream
Won't even speak, let the bullets explain things Thats how it is, paybacks a bitch right especially if you didn't pay back Niggas is sick like, run up in your crib like "bitch where's the bread at?"
"You got a week to get it, dont got it, you'll regret it" Funny I said it cause Jack's in the same exact predicament
Got a foot in the grave and still digging it Owe some niggas money with no intentions of giving it Them niggas is sending warnings, he isn't listening Tomorrow morning they buss in his front door
And a swarm of muthafuckers with guns drawn coming at
On the hunt for Black, Tasha gets smacked But Jack's gone a whole week before he gets back but Niggas is through waiting, they been too patient already
They aint recieved a f-cking penny
So they called a nigga up
Told him if he doesnt get the dough
And give it up n the next 6 hours, his bitch is f-cked
But, hold up!
The nigga Black answers with "So What!"
"I gives a f-ck, shoot the hoe up, still won't show up"
Hung the phone up, toss it back and she knew Sorry baby girl, this is what cheddar can do!
