I'll never give up I have loved you from the start
From the bottom of my heart
Ev'rybody's got to see
You and me are meant to be
What has happened to our love
That was sent from up above
It's the end of our romance
And we won't get a second chance(But I had to conceal) Chorus
Tell me baby what you really want
My body just wants to be with you
Tell me baby what you really need
I'm hoping - ain't gonna be knew

Tell me baby what you really want
Your lovin' was too good to be true
Tell me baby what you really need
Your kisses keepin' me true Your desire seemed so strong
Kind a thought that all along
But now I'm a fallen star
Callin' you then from afar
Feel it's slowly gettin' cold
I'm betrayed an' robbed an' sold
Guess we're finished now for good
But I do hope you understood(Yeah, I'll have this revealed) Repeat Chorus But the sun will always rise
Right before your very eyes I will be with someone new
After all I'll banish you (2x) Repeat Chorus
