

Albert Collins "Master Charge"

Visit "Master Charge" on MotoLyrics.com

My wife has a charge card
That I got her the other day
I owe five hundred dollars
That's just for yesterday

I said, "Honey, here's a present, go out and shop around
Get a couple of dresses and browse around downtown"
She did just what I told her, bought one, two or three Then came home looking silly, making goo-goo eyes at me

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

I said, "Did you get your dresses?"
She said, "Yes, one or two
But I had to get me some shoes and I needed
Some jewelry too"

She had $200 dresses
That I could have made and I can't sew
Fifty Dollars pair of shoes
And I thought you so and so

I said, "What about the jewelry?"
As calmly as I could
She said, "Honey, you'll love them
They're pure African wood"

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Let's charge it!
Let's charge it!

She said, "They were $200 and I paid
One and a half"
I just didn't believe it
I was so mad I had to laugh

I could see it in my mind
On a horse like Paul Revere
I check my mail box
'Cause these bills keep coming here.

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Master Charge
Master Charge
A Bank of America card

Charge it
Let's charge it
Let's charge it

Visit Albert Collins page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.