I see those bruises stain your face; somehow they don't seem out of place.

If you think it's your fault, you're in pain, but you have nothing to explain

All of those times he hurt you, made you do things you didn't want to

It just don't have to be this way

If he only knew what he did to you

All of those times erases right to you

What was the point of it is it because you care?

Is this what it takes for you to feel like a man?

I never thought I'd be there, just seeing all (those) still he don't care

Routine unhappiness is all you live for

All of those times he beat you

You never broke 'cause you never had to

It just don't have to be that way

I'll bleed if you want me to X2

If he only knew what he did to you

All of those times erases right to you

What was the point of it, is it because you care?

Is this what it takes for you to feel like a man? X2

Is this what it takes for you to feel a man?
