Woke up this morning with the sunlight in my eyes
Reached around beside me and I found to my surprise
The covers were still warm where you had briefly laid
your head
Leaving little indication you had been within my bed.

It seemed I'd been enchanted by a spirit in the night Showing little but contempt for all things beautiful or bright
I thought I saw inside you something something terrible
and light
Then you slipped away unnoticed in the night.

Sometimes the answer is right before your eyes
Reach out and touch it, you only had to try
For a while.

You say you can't go with me
You say it isn't me, that it's you
Well I guess I can't forgive you
You'll just fade into the blue

Well, I didn't want to say it, 'cause it might be all for you
I hope that all your dreams will come true

I hope that all your dreams come true
Though I guess I won't be going there with you
You're with me every morning
You're with me late at night
I hope that you can find a little light.

Woke up this morning with the moonlight in my eye Couldn't understand it but I guess I better try
I held you in my arms once and I opened up my life
I don't know what else I could do.
Woke up this morning with the sunlight in my eyes
Reached around beside me and I found to my surprise
The covers were still warm where you had briefly laid
your head
Leaving little indication you had been within my bed.

It seemed I'd been enchanted by a spirit in the night
Showing little but contempt for all things beautiful or

I thought I saw inside you something something terrible
and light
Then you slipped away unnoticed in the night.

Sometimes the answer is right before your eyes
Reach out and touch it, you only had to try
For a while.

You say you can't go with me
You say it isn't me, that it's you
Well I guess I can't forgive you
You'll just fade into the blue

Well, I didn't want to say it, 'cause it might be all for
you
I hope that all your dreams will come true

I hope that all your dreams come true
Though I guess I won't be going there with you
You're with me every morning
You're with me late at night
I hope that you can find a little light.
