The long run
I'm to blame
There's never tomorrow
Cause I forgot to follow her today

I'm not too sure where to go
But if I wanted her love
I was better off showing her
A long time ago
if I wanted her love
I was better off showin' her
A fuckin' long time ago

Like old times
Sleep next to my bed
The Morning Sunshine
Think of things I have said.

I'm not too sure where to go
But if I wanted her love
I was better off showing her
A long time ago
if I wanted her love
I was better off showin' her
A fuckin' long time ago

The Long run
Your to Blame
You said i love you
Quiet and faint...

I'm not too sure where to go
But if I wanted her love
I was better off showing her
A long time ago
if I wanted her love
I was better off showin' her
A god damn, motha fuckin' long time ago...
