if you do really need me then why your eyes glancing at the door diverting your attention thinking of the love that was but is no more and if it ever was you was taking chances all along just remember that i love ya cause its a tough fact to ignore I'm not counting all the cussings just the times that you once swore you wanted to be mine forever but your forever didn't last that long

"I'm Tired of playing games" quote the winner of the war

I'm Tired of being seen says the woman i once saw I wasn't even mean, not to her that i know of and if i knew nothing about it, I'd plead the fifth anyhow you need to get a grip smoke some sense into you cause i been holding it all together without using any glue

but your forever didn't last that long

because I'm so high above you i think I'll float round here a while cause I'm so high, i love you but my brain cant compute your file your so hot, I'm Melting... into a spiral puddle...

hey! pick me up baby, dust the dirt on off of me I've Picked You up before, So please don't do this to me hey! pick me up baby, dust the dirt on off of me I've Picked You up before, So please don't do this now to me...

I'm not counting all the cussings
quote the winner of the war...
