Hang On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Hang... On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Well, I could hang on forever...
Because I been hangin' on since time began...

You ring a bell, yeah
You strike a cord with me
I simply want to tell you
That I find you comforting...

Hang On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Hang... On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Well, I could hang on forever...
Because I been hangin' on since time began...

When your attracted to me closely
I can hear the sounds you sing
You know I been sipping on your kisses slowly
Because your too much of a good thing

Hang On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Hang... On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Well, I could hang on forever...
Because I been hangin' on since time began...

I'm tempted to wake you while your sleeping
Just to whisper "I enjoy your company"
Into my thoughts you are weaving
Because you are my cup of tea...

Hang On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Hang... On... When are we gonna hang out again...
Well, I could hang on forever...
Because I been hangin' on since time began...
