...This is Going out to earth, wherever you are...

As the land we live on Fills up with water
Head for the hills
Cause the land getting shorter
Look at the image in my mind
Falling apart from time
I have not committed crime
I don't steal
Color, Ocean, Teal

Mother earth has spoken
Children shut your mouth
The world wouldn't be so broken
If it wasn't all our fault

Somehow love a tree
In your own personal offense
Ice caps are melting
You've gotta move the tents
Get back behind oh, yeah. You got my back
Got a gun in one hand

Mother earth has spoken
Children shut your mouth
The world wouldn't be so broken
If it wasn't all our fault

Mother earth has spoken
Children shut your mouth
The world wouldn't be so broken
If it wasn't all our faults
