Remembering when we first met We had that adventure in our eyes But something got away I guess In the everyday of our lives

And I dont know what keeps us here Lets disappear and start all over again

(Chorus:) We can run away baby come as you are You can look at my heart as your getaway car we can drive all night it will be alright love can take us so far in your get away car

o yah

all we need is the open road and more fuel for the fire inside us steer us on to lands unknown and we can leave this world behind and all I know is you and me thats all we'll need to start all over again

(Chorus)

We can run away baby come as you are You can look at my heart as your getaway car we can drive all night it will be alright love can take us so far in your get away car

Turn up the radio

dont look back again let me put the pedal down get us out of this town dont be afraid to run

oh baby

(Chorus) We can run away baby come as you are You can look at my heart as your getaway car we can drive all night it will be alright love can take us so far in your get away car

We can run away baby You can look at my heart as your get away car all we need is the open road come on come on baby lets go now now hey ohh baby oooooo you can use my heart as your get away car.
