the moment passed me by you're much more brave than i she knows i'm scared as hell the secrets we'll never tell

this is my formal hello
my way of letting you go this overwhelming thought is knowing what I took back(?) my memory tangle the knots forgetting what shouldn't be forgot

now you know that i am in the wrong that im capable of with my hands some day she'll whisper my name see here listen closely she may never speak it again my song is yours to keep the memory of things we don't speak maybe you're scared as well but i promise i'll never tell open your eyes so you know to catch every kiss that i blow
