If you ever been in love before
Let me tell you how it goes
It hit you like a tighter wave
Before you know it just swept away.

You walk, you run, you fall
Get up and brush it off,
You win, you lose in time
You choose the one you risk it all for, all for Could've been you, it's gotta be you.

So light your phones up
If you love somebody
I mean if you really love somebody
Let me see your hands in the air right now
You could show the world that you care right now oh.
If you love somebody
I mean if you really love somebody
Let me see your hands in the air right now
Light your phones up if you care right now oh

(So light your phones up, yeah)

I can get you through your darkest nights
Always be by your side
I know it gets hard at times
Wish I had the answers why.
Your bags against the wall
And you think you lost it all
Just turn your head and I'll be there to catch you when you fall
Could it be you, it's gotta be you

[Chorus:]

I'm reaching out to hearts tonight
From city streets to countrysides
Wherever you are
I'll never be far

[Chorus:]
