Look once more before the door
Find that wrong you're looking for
Mirror makes a fool of me
Vanity I must concede

Cast aside your want to be's
Buzzing around your want to sees
Mirror spies a different game
Look all day you are still the same

Nobody sees you
When you belong
I cannot see you
Don't look too long

Fast inside the calling seas
Blasting out the pounding beat
Mirror sighs an unknown name
Look all day you'll go insane

Nobody sees you
Not much left here to get wrong
