Everytime I think of you i smile
I would walk a hundred thousand miles just to be with you right now, beautiful lady
And everytime I leave you all alone
Soon as i'm gone I want to come home, Whenever you miss me, pick up the phone, beautiful lady

You my last stop shorty Swear to God, wifey, you smiling on completely took my heart your parents made a work of art so special i saw a future from the start i'll never let go and i dont care about the fortune and the fame cuz without you my life it dont mean a thing listen i got a proposition next level shit i just need your dads permission see i was thinkin we could spend our whole lives together make it official and give a true meaning to forever im so much better you've completed me in every way the other half that made my whole life change we'll make memories that we can frame everyday theres so much more i want to convey but for now im gunna freeze the time capture your beauty to have you close when i'm far away listen

Everytime I think of you i smile
just to be with you right now, beautiful lady
And everytime I leave you all alone
Soon as i'm gone I want to come home,

you my sunshine when it rains ever since you came through it hasnt been the same you taught a player how to successfully get out the game
your persistance and patience changed everything im a better man and im thankful from the core of my heart cuz you loving me back has given me a brand new start even when u cuss me i know we;re worlds apart i still be right here protecting you holding you caressing you forever tryna bring out the best in you i never take you for granted and start disrespecting you as long as you do the same baby we cool don't you ever second guess whether these words are true

my cards are laid out cutie how bout u
the g6 is fueled and the skies are blue we could hit the far east or where ever you choose now the only thing left is just to say i do

Everytime I think of you i smile
And everytime I leave you all alone
Soon as i'm gone I want to come home,

dont matter what they make think dont matter what they may try to say i'll be loving you always so whenever im gone girl pick up the phone you can hit me anytime you want cuz you you really got me so gone beautiful lady oh~

Everytime I think of you i smile
And everytime I leave you all alone
Soon as i'm gone I want to come home,

beautiful lady hold on im coming home
