She's a rattlesnake, so beware of her fangs
A lightening strike, and its straight through your veins
No one can say, why she does what she'll do
One mistake, diyo day

Diyo diyo dayo dayo

He's a model saint, but they say he's insane
He lives in a crate, in the wind and the rain
He had it all, but he threw it away
One mistake, diyo day

Diyo diyo dayo dayo

A man of men, he's the king of the trade
Omnipotent, to the fools he enslaves
Wide-awake, from the nightmare they made
One mistake, diyo day

Diyo diyo dayo dayo
