Gone long…
I got it bad when she was (she was), right there
But she's long gone, not even thinkin' of me

I keep lookin' around but nothing feeling like I shouldn't,
I can't sleep
Cause she's not even thinkin' of me,
Not even thinkin' of me

All this time her space is all gone,
I've been stuck inside this wall zone for a long time,
Battling my mind.

I'm eternally lost, (I feel like I lost my mind)
Without your love, (I know that I get left behind)
And all I do is waste my time,
I'm stuck between your world time.
I'm eternally lost, lost and all alone
And it's your love that leads me on.

And I'm gone
I'm stuck in a world where the sky is all grey
And I've become, something that's not even me
Something that's not even me
Four walls,
They keeping me locked but
I keep trying to find a way to your heart
Nothing is working for me,
Nothing is working for me…

All this time her space is all gone,
I've been stuck inside this wall zone for a long time,
Got up in my mind.

I'm eternally lost, (I feel like I lost my mind)
Without your love, (I know that I get left behind)
And all I do is waste my time,
I'm stuck between your world time.
I'm eternally lost, lost and all alone
And it's your love that leads me on.

I'm spinning through days,
Stuck in the days, I hope not to face.
It's like I'm the last one off the stage
And there's no music left to play, so I'm lost!
Like an open wound that's never gonna heal,
You're the only thing in my world that is real...

Eternally lost... (This feeling like I've lost my mind, yeah~)
Without your love, (I tried to get left behind from you)
All I do is waste my time, I'm stuck between your world time.
I'm eternally lost, lost and all alone
And it's your love that leads me on.
