Everybody really wants to get to know you Put your middle finger up and let the haters know Should be stepping to the rhythm that I showed you Like I showed you Look what I told you

Turn the lights down
Bring the house down
Everybody here to party
Do your thing now
You're not no newbie
And now your movie
Before the cops come out and people try to sue ya

See the light in your eyes
Makes you shine
Boy you got it
Don't let them break break you down
Break break you down
Cause you're bringing it now
Ohh you're bringing it now

See the light in your eyes
Makes you shine
Boy you got it
Don't let them break break you down
Bring bring you down
Cause you're bringing it now
Ohh you're bringing it now

Certain people want your picture for the papers All your fans want your posters from the magazines

They wanna ping you up
They wanna love and hate ya
You know they're traitors
They make you famous

Turn the lights down
Bring the house down
Everybody here to party
Do your thing now

You're not no newbie And now your movie Before the cops come out and people try to sue ya

See the light in your eyes
Makes you shine
Boy you got it
Don't let them break break you down
Bring bring you down
Cause you're bringing it now
Ohh you're bringing it now

See the light in your eyes
Makes you shine
Boy you got it
Don't let them break break you down
Bring bring you down
Cause you're bringing it now
Ohh you're bringing it now
