Grey skies, greyer clouds.
That's all that's been around,
Nothing brings me down like the weather can.
Nothing like the heart being broke again.

Blue skies, with no clouds.
It's you with me now,
Nothing cheers me up like the weather can.
Nothing like the warmth i'm imagining.

Forecast said it's gonna storm for the weekend,
Think i've found another reason to sleep in.
If you could be all I see when i'm dreaming,
Then i've found another reason.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss what you took with you.
It's been forever since i've felt a wind,
That moves me like you do.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss how the sun went too.
If you ever return,
Bring me back the weather.

Said if, you, should return,
Bring, back, the weather.
If, you, should return,
Bring back the weather.

When you said goodbye,
I didn't know you meant for life.
Don't know why it felt like all pretend.
Thought that you could leave and come back again.

I don't wanna cry.
But as I stand outside,
No-one else can tell I am,
Once I let the rain hit my face again.

Forecast said it's gonna storm for the weekend,
Think i've found another reason to sleep in.
If you could be all I see when i'm dreaming,
Then i've found another reason.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss what you took with you.
It's been forever since i've felt a wind,
That moves me like you do.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss how the sun went too.
If you ever return,
Bring me back the weather.

Said if, you, should return,
Bring, back, the weather.
If, you, should return,
Bring back the weather.

Cos when it was cold,
I used your arms.
Now that it's cold,
You've gone too far.

And if it's raining,
In my heart,
I hope it's raining where you are.
Oh oh ohhhh.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss what you took with you.
It's been forever since i've felt a wind,
That moves me like you do.

Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss you,
Maybe I miss how the sun went too.
If you ever return,
Bring me back the weather.

Said if, you, should return,
Bring, back, the weather.
If, you, should return,
Bring back the weather, with you.
