Black night is fallen
The sun has gone to bed
The inner scents are dreaming
As you should sleepyhead
Sleepyhead, sleepyhead

All the hurt in the world
I send it to you
Comfort and protection
I will watch over you

But don't ask me
What's gonna happen next
I know the future
I'd love to reach you away
Just to make it easier on you

You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself

My dearest scatterheart
Serious comfort
Right in the eye of the hurricane
Just to make it easier on you

You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself

All the hurt in the world
You know there's nothing
I'd rather do more
Then spare you from that burden

It's gonna be hard
If I only could
Shelter you from that pain
Just to make it easier on you

You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
You are gonna have to find out for yourself
