There's a clock on the wall
And it seems quite clear
Round about this time
I'm the only one here

I'd Do Anything...
I'd Do Anything, at all..
I'd Do Anything
To have you here

Theres a bottle of wine
That could cure your fears
I could spin you a line
That would bring us to tears

I'd Do Anything...
I'd Do Anything, at all..
I'd Do Anything
To have you here

Anything, - Anything you want from me
I would do anything - Anything you need baby
I would do anything - Anything you want to do
Just close your eyes, I'll come to you.

You can do what you like
But you can't say no
You can dance in the lights
But it's only a show

I'd Do Anything...
I'd Do Anything, at all..
I'd Do Anything
To have you here
