Mask Of Silence

Hold out my hand mixed blessings received
I must defend myself against the odds preconceived
Shadowy figures, what's their intent
Dirt on their hands, they're not innocent

You must hold this mask of silence
You can wait now in the violence

Precious by day victim by sight
Little time left to bring injustice to the light
I must allow myself some places to go where they cannot find me
A side I'll never show

You must hold this mask of silence
You can wait now in the violence
You must come now we've been waiting
One more lost soul for the taking
