They grow in the dark
It's poison, you know
It takes you further into...

A dream of endless falling
The beat inside is calling

They spread through my limbs
Veins of the earth
A little blood shared
A little rebirth
Compass of the heart
I know I've gone wrong
Teach me how to move again
Make me strong

Come out to play
It's waiting for you
Lurking all around by the light of the moon
Turn another key
Go in deeper
The soul gets stranger

La La La La La
La La La La La La La
La La La La La La La
La La La La La La

"Boys and girls come out to play
The moon doth shine as bright as day
Leave your home leave your sleep
Join your playmates in the street
Up the ladder and down the wall
There's enough to serve us all"
