Through the door of the mezzanine
The operation unseen
Experiment of heart and mind
Examining all we find
Here within these scarlet walls
You show me secret hidden halls
Come to me ungodly sent
The clandestine experiment

Potions mixing like a symphony
Clouds of smoke form secrecy
Time is never permanent
The clandestine experiment

Nothing but the best most advanced technology
Connecting taste and sight
Connecting wrong and right
State of the art top of the line

Hell with heaven heart with brain
Connecting blood and vein

Coming into consciousness the curtain drawn the soul confess undercover ministry the nectar's in the chemistry devoted to a deep descent
the clandestine experiment

Connecting wrong and right
