a household breakdown iced tears for two enough to make your blood my fuel you run on empty a few ricoculous claims wait that's yours we bleed the same and while i'm drinking can i buy one for you? no six long years and eight months to the day in your mind i haven't aged and what about him? is he really there? or is he stuck in 88? and while i'm drinking can i buy one for you? no we're young forever young or trapped? and while i'm drinking can i buy one for you? so here's to another year a stagnant lie and moving dreams and while i'm drinking can i buy one for you?
