Joe Justiz (talking):

See, I gotta girl

Lemme, lemme smooove it out real fast on this one man

Yo Mo, turn me up on the headphones a little bit

Yea, thats that's good right there

Check

Joe Justiz (singing):

Let me tell you about my baby girl

Why she really mean so much to me

She's so special and she's so unique

Sounds like music whenever she speaks

It's so clear to see that I'm in love

It's so plain to see we're meant to be

She came to me from heaven above'

I will never leave her; that's a garentee

Joe Justiz: Yo

She's beautiful, she's more than fine

She's a superstar plus she does more than just shine

Peace loving, she is more than kind

So I lift up my hands, thank the lord she's mine

She caught me.. when I was a straight up sinner

But now I chase her and I'm a straight up winner

Yes I'm a man but I feel safe with her

It will be the end of me before I break up with her, now

Mozel:

I'll always..(be there)

I'll always..(keep her)

I'll never..(leave her)

She is the.. (?????)

I'll always..(be there)

I'll always..(keep her)

I'll never..(leave her)

She is the.. (????)
