Kid were screamin'™ , wife was bitchin'™
Just took the keys out of my ignition
Why'™ d I always feel like a jerk
After a hard day'™ s work
Might have a couple regrets
Right now I'™ ll take what I can get
I need a television set to free my mind
Television set to drown '™ em out
Television set, might as well have been blind
There ain'™ t nothin'™ better for the down and the
out
There ain'™ t nothin'™ better for the down and the

Smoke and mirrors, snakes and ladders
You climb a few. you slide back down
My head is on the pillow
My heart in the basement
My mind is in the gutter
Girls roll around in the sand
And I got the telephone in my hand
Let us not forget the television set
