every time i run its always to her arms its really not quite fair, cause she's just egging me on know all i want to do is get lost in your eyes just one minute with you babe makes everything alright i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you
i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you try to keep busy and hang with all my friends but you know id rather be with you instead no matter how far you go i wont ever forget that kiss believe me baby you're the reason that i write songs like this
i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you
i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you i bought season tickets, went to every single game even went down to the arcade and spent all my change invested in a stock and a few dvd's but every little thing i did made me think of you and me finally got some peace and quiet on a lonesome Sunday night away from the riot of that country music life so i guess i know just what i gotta do there ain't no way, there ain't now how to stop missing you
i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you
i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you i guess there's no way, no how to stop missing you i don't know what I'll do to keep from missing you
