Hold that thought what was it you said again
With everyone else to blame but yourself
So what with all the lies you're believing
The choice is yours and it's on

Chorus:

What do ya have to say for yourself?
What do ya have to say?

Again confronted you push him away over & over & over same old
Led in disbelief say this isn't real and again your wrong and it's on
Will you eva change?
Will your thoughts stay the same
Must you push him away
No you'll never change
